Dear Prof Mary K. Bolin and Prof Gail Z. Eckwright,

I am pleased to submit an original research article entitled “Indonesian Journal of Applied Linguistics: A bibliometric portrait of ten publication years” by Abdul Syahid for consideration for publication in the Library Philosophy and Practice (e-journal).

The Southeast Asian and Indonesian leading journal in the field of applied linguistics is worth portraying from the angles of publication, citation, and indexation. I performed the performance and network analyses of the journal by mining bibliographic data from Microsoft Academic through the use of two bibliometric tools.

I believe that this manuscript is appropriate for publication by Library Philosophy and Practice (e-journal) because it is concerned with one of the following topics in your prestigious journal. This manuscript could describe the pattern of performance and network in the journal during its one decade of publication. This manuscript has not been published and is not under consideration for publication elsewhere. I have no conflicts of interest to disclose.

Please find attached:

1. Manuscript ready for publication;
2. Manuscript for a blind review process;
3. Report of similarity check by turnitin;
4. Form of ethic committee approval

5. A complete data set which could be downloaded on

Syahid, A. (2021). Indonesian Journal of Applied Linguistics: A bibliometric portrait of ten publication years (Supplementary materials) [Data set].

Thank you for your consideration.
