Please find attached the edited version of the text you submitted for JSRI. The next issue is scheduled to be published on the website in the coming days. If you identify any mistakes, please document them in a separate Word document, including the exact location of each mistake (page, paragraph, line) and provide both the incorrect phrase and the corrected phrase. Please also provide all the missing references that we identified in the text (in yellow). We advise you to pay attention to have in the bibliography from the end of your paper all the papers that you mention in the article. Please include the missing references in the correction file.

Additionally, please remember to sign the copyright form, as we are unable to publish your text without it. We kindly request that you send us the list of mistakes within the next 3 days, if possible.

Please thoroughly review the entire manuscript, including the information on authors, abstract, and references, as once the article is published on the website, it cannot be modified.

Best regards,

JSRI Editorial Team
